The Writing’s on the Wall:

Open Access Tutorials for Epigraphic Studies

Lisa Tweten, Chelsea Gardner, Kat Solberg & Katie Hurworth
University of British Columbia
Epigraphy

- the study of inscriptions
- primary sources of major historical events
- eg. Drako’s Law Code, 621 BCE

Photos by Chelsea Gardner, from the Epigraphical Museum of Athens
Epigraphic Squeezes

- Paper copy of an inscription, used for remote study
- Digitized copies can be studied from anywhere in the world
- fromstonetoscreen.com
Teaching Modules

- Creating teaching modules to demonstrate first-hand how historians use primary source material
- Areas of focus
  - Athenain democracy
  - Tribute Lists of the Delian League
  - Building accounts of the Erechtheion and Parthenon
Thank you

Financial support for this project is provided by the Teaching and Learning Enhancement Fund granted by the University of British Columbia, and from the Classical, Near Eastern & Religious Studies Department at UBC.

@CNRS_Squeezes
facebook.com/fromstonetoscreen
fromstonetoscreen.com