Bio:
Formerly benjamin-agaric in IRC, I3IVIVI on Twitter, and the identity-concealing username Benjamin Melançon here, before standardizing on mlncn (my last name without vowels or the cedilla).

Many companies that use Drupal contribute the customizations and modules they build back into the Drupal ecosystem thereby enriching the whole Drupal community.

Boston Collaboratory School

A mentoring experience where teaching and learning goes both ways

At BoCoLab, students will experience:

A flexible, nurturing and joyful learning environment that values interconnectedness and brings together fields of study, people and communities.

Personalized learning that is relevant to students and inclusive of English Learners and students with special needs.

Interdisciplinary, project-based learning that will prepare them to: pursue further study, enter careers that are knowledge-intensive, and create their own successful paths.

DRUTOPIA

Drutopia offers shared web hosting where fees go to enrich the specific features and customizations voted on by the members.
